Hamilton, Ont. KING STREET, LOOKING WEST FROM POST OFFICE.

LL2272

POST CARD

THE ADDRESS TO BE WRITTEN ON THIS SIDE

ARTIST SERIES TRADE MARK

By Appointment.

King Street, looking West from Post Office.
King Street, the most prominent thoroughfare in the city, was laid out in 1813, and runs east and west. It is wide and well paved, and is lined with imposing shops, hotels, and mercantile houses—all fine specimens of architecture.

Raphael Tuck & Sons' "OILETTE" Postcard 2410. "HAMILTON" Ont.
ART PUBLISHERS TO THEIR MAJESTIES THE KING & QUEEN

Printed in Saxony

CT PA 12.9